

ONE YEAR'S SUSPENSE

Martin Trent's Punishment For Striking His Principal.

APOLOGY DON'T COUNT

SCHOOL BOARD COMMITTEE AS DISCIPLINARIANS.

Superintendent Cooper in Session With the Committee—Next Year's List of Teachers Will Show But Comparatively Few Changes From Present Roster.

Suspension from the high school for one year is the punishment prescribed by the board of education-committee on teachers and school work and Superintendent Cooper for Martin Trent, the young student appeared before the committee last evening by request, to explain the circumstances relating to his assault upon Principal Clark of the high school last Tuesday, but the decision in Trent's case was reached after he had been excused from answering further searching questions bearing upon his school conduct.

Superintendent Cooper and the committee had already been advised by Principal Clark of his version of the affair, and notwithstanding that Mr. Trent had publicly expressed regret for letting his anger assert itself in so serious a manner, the adjudicators were of the opinion that the offense could not be condoned by mere apology, however sincerely it may be stated. In consequence the committee, on the superintendent's recommendation, and in the interest of proper discipline in the schools, declared that Trent's offense warranted his suspension from the school for one year.

But Few New Teachers.

At the conclusion of the committee's meeting it was announced that there would be but comparatively few changes in next year's teaching corps, fewer, in fact, than has been the case for several years. For the most part, the new teachers will be those who will fill vacancies occasioned by granting long leaves of absence, declarations to continue in the service, and those to be chosen for the additional number of instructors necessary.

The committee, with Superintendent Cooper associated, spent several hours further considering the superintendent's list of recommendations of teachers to be employed next year. Satisfactory progress was made, but the list will probably not be completed for the board's ratification until the end of next week after which the roster of principals and supervisors will be made up.

HEARD AND SEEN IN TIMMONY'S COURT.

When the young prosecutor called for Ole Olsen in dulcet strains an individual whose name might have been Mike McCarthy, arose and smiled and said it was he who had caused the trouble so much trouble. He was sorry, too, but he didn't know that he could help matters any at this late stage. He promised to take his blankets and get out of town at once if given an opportunity, and the court gave him a chance, advising him to shun Salt Lake boozes.

Jimmy Henry had three companions who were as drunk as himself, he said, but they all had been out on a tour of the city. He had no desire to tarry within Zion's walls, he added, and with the usual admonition, the court bade him depart.

Edna Deemer was accused of engaging in a fight, contrary to the peace and dignity of Commercial street. She exhibited a badly battered mouth, but as it appeared to Deemer that she had gotten the worst of it, having had an ambarella and a beer bottle bawled off her head by one Lucie Warren, he moved that the case be dismissed. It was unanimously passed.

"If the court please—" "I heard what you said," put in the magistrate, and the docket came to a sudden halt.

WIRE NAILS DOWN.

Reduction of One Dollar Per Keg is Made.

Dealers in wire and nails in this city have just been notified by circular letter that there has been a reduction of $1 per keg on nails and $1 per hundred weight on all kinds of iron wire. This is due to the recent action of the trust, better known as the American Steel & Wire company, in reducing prices 20 per cent on their products, and illustrates how completely the American people are in the control of this organization. The reduction is said to be due to a desire to reduce stocks on hand and the closing down of twelve mills had the same object in view.

A prominent dealer in hardware in the city in speaking of this matter said he knew of no dealers who were caught with a large stock on hand, as all dealers knew that nails were too high, and they were on the lookout for some such action on the part of the "pool," as he called it. Nails have been jobbed here at 50 per keg and will now be jobbed at $1. Wire of all kinds will be reduced $1 per hundred weight. The circular sent out states that the reduction may be but temporary, the trust thus reserving the right to raise the price at its pleasure.

The New Hotel.

The praise and commendation of discriminating traveling men is always valuable and influential. It is this class always in the majority at Don Porter's new hotel, "The Kenyon," who do not qualify or abridge the pleasant or complimentary things they have to say of this particularly "nice" new hotel.

STATE STREET RUNAWAY

Mrs. W. D. Palmer Thrown From a Buggy.

A runaway, which looked for a time as if it would have a fatal termination, occurred at noon yesterday at the corner of State and Fourth south streets. W. D. Palmer, an elderly man of Granger were just leaving Salt Lake to drive home in his buggy. At the corner of State and Fourth south streets they stopped to water the horse. Mr. Palmer got out of the buggy and slipped the bridle down so that the horse could drink unimpeded. In some way the check rein got entangled on the hydrant and the animal became frightened. It jerked back and freed itself from the bridle toward the sidewalk.

It tried to leap the ditch and threw all the weight of the buggy on one wheel, breaking that wheel badly and throwing Mrs. Palmer out with great force. Fortunately she alighted on a grass plot and was not seriously hurt. Dr. Witcher was summoned, but found that the woman was suffering more from nervous shock than anything else.

The Palmers had their buggy fixed and proceeded home later in the afternoon. The horse was stopped on the sidewalk after it tried to jump.

MOTHER—GENERAL DEAD

Was Formerly in Charge of Academies Here.

South Bend, Ind., April 27.—Mother Annunziata, a general of the sisters of the Order of the Holy Cross died today of heart disease. The funeral will be held at St. Mary's academy on Tuesday. Her family name was Margaret McFadyen. She was born in 1843, and educated in Philadelphia. She received the habit of the order in 1860, and took the final vows five years later. At the regular bi-weekly meeting of the Utah Federation of Labor held last night, it was reported that the trust smelters are violating the eight-hour law. BROKERS IN A FIGHT

Bamberger and Green Have Lively Set-to.

DAMAGE WAS TRIFLING

ONE BLACKENED EYE, ONE BRUISED NOSE.

New Aspirants For Pugilistic Honors Startle the Rialto With an Impromptu Engagement Over the Merits of the Baseball Game and Teams Today.

A lively set-to at catch weights was pulled off in the Rialto yesterday afternoon. The principals were Joe Bamberger, known to fans as "The Bartholomew Spider," and H. E. Green, an almost unknown aspirant for heavyweight honors. Green had the best of it in weight by about 100 pounds, but Joe evened things up by an advantage in reach and agility. Jimmy Fulton acted as referee. The bout opened with verbal sparring. One of the scrappers, it matters not which for the purposes of this unvarnished tale, insisted that the Curbers would win the ball game today. The other was just as sure that the Brokers would win. One word brought on another, as the fairy tales say, until the lie was passed.

That was too awful for any use. The epithets had hardly fallen from the lips of one of the pugilists when the battle began. The first round opened with Green leading for the Spider's opinion. Life somehow went half-way to meet the lead. Anyways, the impact of the fist against the peeper was terrific.

Joe retaliated with a left hook to Green's jaw. Then he crossed with his right, and Green's nose flew a signal of distress. Joe's eyes glared angrily and pieces of eye-glass flew in every direction. At this juncture, Referee Fulton, fearing that something serious might happen, interfered, and waved the fighters to their corners and called the battle a draw.

It is not believed that Green will be compelled to breathe through his mouth for the rest of his life. The fight was on both men in the event that a finish fight can be arranged for.

Bamberger and Green declared after the fight that they were going to a decision, one of them would certainly have won. This was regarded as a great admission for either of the men make and their chivalry was pointed to with pride by all kinds of people.

ELDREDGE ELECTED.

Republicans Choose a Precinct Chairman.

The Republican precinct committee of the Second precinct met last night and elected a new chairman, J. E. Eldredge, Jr. He has succeeded Jack Heald, who resigned because of absence from the city. There was a lively scramble for the place. The meeting was held at the office of C. H. Hammond in the Eagle block. There was a full committee and H. F. Heath was the opposing candidate. The vote stood: Heath 7, Eldredge 11.

The committee decided to at once begin a canvass of the precinct, and the work will be looked after by the district chairman.
